The advance in the application of mechanical power to the problems of life since 1887 has been most marvelous of all. Since that time electricity has taken in large measure the place of steam in a thousand avenues of life, and where the steam wheel made one revolution the electric motor makes ten. If we increase at this rate during the next generation the working force of the world it will be possible to do all the work

A blue cross opposite your name means that your subscription will expire before the end of the month; and if you desire the paper go to you any longer you must send in your renewal by that time. The low price of the paper makes it just out of the question to send it longer than it is paid for. Be governed accordingly.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. S. Leonard—Pianos and Organs, Progressive Farmer—Try it eight weeks for 10 cents.
We wish to request our readers when writing to any of the above companies to say that you saw the advertisement in THE CAUCASIAN.

In another column will be found a notice of the Progressive Farmer, of Illinois. It is live and progressive and is doing for the North what its namesake is doing for the South, i. e., educating the people for reform. Try it for 8 weeks for 10 cents.

The third Demorest Silver Medal Contest, will be held at St. John's church on Friday night, (Goldsboro, N. C.). All are urged to attend. Admission free 10 cents. Exercises to commence at 7.30. After the exercises the Ladies Aid Society will give an entertainment and ice cream supper at the Parsonage.

Those of our readers who contemplate purchasing a piano or organ should not do so until they have seen or written to Mr. Leonard of Wilmington, N. C. See his ad in another column. Mr. Leonard has been in the business for years and his experience will be worth something to you in making selections. He is too honest to advise you wrong.

Our Editor is absent this week. He is in the Virginia campaign. We notice that Senator Daniels and Ex-Gov. Lee were billed to speak against him at Houston on the 24th. That's the way to do it, trot out your best. We have not heard from them but we are not at all anxious or at least so far as our man is concerned. He is able to take care of the cause he represents, again, as Col. Baker used to say, any of the "big red ones they bring out against him."

Lenoir county has, like a man, sent Mr. Butler to help out her sister State Virginia. Now let other counties do as well. Dr. Cy Thompson and Col. Harry Skinner are ready to cross words with any of the Virginia gold-bugs, but you must not expect them to bear their own expenses. Raise a sum sufficient to bear their expenses and call for them and they will respond, and either or both will do to trust with our banner. There are but a few more days to work—be up and at them.

The National Watchman has been changed to 16 pages and the subscription price raised to $1.00 per year. We club it at 75 cts. It gives away each week a 25 pound box of chewing tobacco to the one sending the largest club. H. T. Grenell of Gillon Oregan, got the first box. He only sent a club of two, so you see if some other fellow had got three subscribers he would now be chewing the weed. Fire right in next week and see what you can do. Or come and let us order it for you and save 25 cents and at the same time give us a chance to get the premium, we chew.

Died, at the home of her parents, in Wayne county, Oct. 8th, 1893, the young and devoted wife of Mr. Alonzo Carr, of Green county. Mrs. Carr suffered for four weeks, but through all her suffering she never murmured, but bore it with christian patience and fortitude. She was a consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, and died in the full faith of glorious resurrection. All that we can do to console the grief stricken ones of her loved ones is to recommend to them that Grace which is sufficient to sustain them in their bereavement. J. W. H.

A difficulty between Mr. N. J. Smith and James McKines, both of Pikeville township, a few days ago, resulted in Mr. Smith striking Mr. McKines on the head with a hatchet, fracturing his skull. We are pained to hear of this. Mr. Smith is one of the best men of our county, and while we have not learned the particulars of this unfortunate affair, we are satisfied that there was great provocation or Mr. Smith would have struck his fellowman with a deadly weapon. Mr. McKines, while a hard working and clever man when sober, has a habit of getting on his feet, and no doubt was in that condition when this affair occurred.

Congressman Bryan (like thousands of Democrats in North Carolina) realizes that they have now reached the forks of the road. They must give up the Democratic party, and give up the Democratic principles that they believe in.

The first number of the "Solid South" published at Fayetteville, N. C., by John McDuffie is on our table, we welcome it among our exchanges, and wish it God's speed in its efforts, for and in behalf of the cause of the people it has espoused.

Col. Harry Skinner will address the people of Hyde, at Swann Quarter, (at the recess of court) on Monday, Nov. 13th, on the objects of the Alliance as related to the issues of the day. The public generally are invited to hear him.

Mr. F. B. Edmundson, of our city, was happily united in wedlock, at 10 o'clock a. m. the 24th inst., the bride being Miss Mal Crawford, of Raleigh. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. R. Crawford. The brother of the groom, Rev. J. T. Edmundson, performed the ceremony that made them "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one"—or words to that effect. May they enjoy a long and pleasant life together.

Our neighbor, Mr. E. L. Edmundson, informs that he has been ordered by a friend of ours—he would not tell who it was—to place at our command two pairs of shoes, and that they are there for us to select at our pleasure. As we only wear one at a time and generally break the left to the right foot, you see it amounts to four pairs for us, consequently we are in for the winter. We like always to know who to thank for favors but as we are not to know, we will say he is a generous hearted soul and he has our thanks whether we know him or not.

Almost every man has enemies—even Christ the Saviour of man while in the flesh had His—and some men are to be loved and admired for the enemies they have made. Senator Irbly of South Carolina has his; as is evidenced by a postal card we have received from some one writing us from Alendale, S. C. The writer, a gold-bug no doubt, writes us applying certain epithets to the Senator, and has the cheek, although he has not the manliness to sign his name to the card, to ask us to publish it. We are not personally acquainted with Senator Irbly—we admire him however for the stand he has taken for the cause of the people on the silver question, and we believe that the people of his own State as well as ours and other States are with him, and the fact that some one who has not the manliness to say to the Senator's face or publicly over his own signature what he dares to say behind a nom de plume, will have but little effect in causing us to lose our admiration for the Senator's bold stand taken for the people. And we say hurrah for Senator Irbly, the contents of the postal card to the contrary notwithstanding.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY AYCOCK.

We wish to take this means of congratulating Hon. C. B. Aycock upon his appointment to the position of United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina. We know of no man in the party more worthy or capable for the place. But we had feared that he would not get the appointment, for we did not believe that the Ransom machine would allow any man to get the place who would not bow down and pledge eternal allegiance to the machine, even to the point of doing dirty campaign work and to downright stealing of votes if necessary. And besides we did not think a man could get the place without specifically promising to support Ransom for United States Senator in the next campaign. And now, Aycock is not understood to be a Ransom man. But on the other hand we could not see how Mr. Aycock could well accept the position even when offered to him. He pledged the people on the stump last fall that if the Democratic party did not wipe out trusts and monopolies, give them free coinage of silver and more money that he would leave the party and join with the people in their fight for reform under the Populist banner. But we suppose that he is still hoping against hope that congress will yet do what the party promised. But it is certain that congress will do no such thing, so we take this means also of congratulating the people that they are soon to have the brilliant young Aycock on their side. He will not let a little piece of government pie like the attorneyship effect him. Certainly when congress adjourns, if not before, he will come square out and let the people know on which side he stands. His heart is too big and he is too honest to again ask the people to support the gold-bug monopoly-ridden Democratic party. We expect to see him soon take the bold, manly stand for the people under the Populist banner.

A GOOD REPORT FROM BRO. LONG.

Bro. J. J. Long who has just visited the county Alliances of Green, Wayne, Wilson, Nash, Franklin, Warren and Johnston counties reports that the Alliance in these counties are moving along finely and gaining in membership. He spoke at each county Alliance and reports good attendance. At every place where we have heard from the brethren, they are much pleased with the addresses made by Bro. Long.

We were with Bro. Long at the Johnston county Alliance and was delighted at the progress the reform movement is making in that county.

The vote on the confirmation of Van Allen, the millionaire dude with foreign proclivities, as Minister to Rome, was taken in the Senate Friday. The nomination was confirmed by a vote of 39 yeas to 22 nays. Ransom voted for the dude who bought his place with $50,000, and Vance voted against him. Who was it that said "Public office is a public trust?"

UNCONDITIONAL REPEAL CERTAIN.

A telegram from Washington informs us that the Southern Democrats refuse to filibuster and that unconditional repeal is certain. Well we do not know that we care. We have favored opposition to unconditional repeal and would fight it to the last if a member of congress, but there seems to be a determination on the part of the administration to force it upon us. So let it come and let the responsibility rest where it belongs. We refer them to the 92nd Psalm; which we think is applicable in this case. It reads as follows: "When the wicked spring as the grass, and the workers of iniquity do flourish, it is that they shall be destroyed forever." Some will say there is political selfishness in this. We try to divest ourselves of selfishness; we are but human however. W. G. H.

A DEMOCRAT WITH A KNIFE?

A knife, with a long, keen blade, whetted for the purpose, is waiting for Mr. Woodward, the Democratic congressman from the second (Republican) district. One could smell the sulphur and brimstone on Judge Martin's breath when he spoke of the way things were going in Woodward's district. The Judge is an influential Bertie Democrat, and to put it mildly, he does not approve of Woodward's methods in the distribution of the spoils. Naturally he protests against what he characterizes as an alliance between Woodward and Frank Winston, a Republican, according to the eminent Bertie jurist a deal is on, and Winston is enjoying perquisites that rightfully belong to Democrats. The common, plain people don't understand these combinations, but they will have an inkling of its meaning unless something in the way of paralysis happens to Judge Martin. Some people here wonder whether this Dr. Jekyll and Hyde business between Woodward and Winston has any connection with anything else. Judge Martin says that "certain district patronage has been turned over to Winston, and that the aforesaid Winston is placing it where it will do the most good." What this means is only surmise. The secret, or the "motif of the play" will develop hereafter.

THE MORALE it points is the every day trading between certain Republicans and certain Democrats who thoroughly understand each other. The scheme has been uncovered. Woodward is a meek-looking man. Nobody would ever suppose that he had the nerve to "scuttle a ship" or the gall to accept a certificate of election, knowing that a great fraud was thereby perpetrated. Any way, Martin will knife him for a renomination, and should that fail he expects to defeat his re-election. Martin is said to be a "crack shot."

When there was a surplus in the United States Treasury, the goldbugs suggested to the President and Congressmen, that it was not necessary to lower taxes, but that the government ought to buy up bonds that were not due at a premium, and it was done. Of course the goldbugs held the bonds, they named the amount of the premium and got the money. The people continued to pay higher taxes and foot the bills.

Now there is a deficit in the Treasury, and the goldbugs again suggest, that of course it will not do to lower taxes now, but that the government should issue more interest bearing bonds, so that they can invest their money again, and Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic administration is trying to serve them.

The people have now made up their minds that they will now do some suggesting themselves. But they must first elect a President and Congressmen who will listen to their suggestions, rather than the goldbugs, this will be when the People's party is in power.

FROM THE PEOPLE.

GATES CO., N. C., Oct. 14, 1893.
MR. EDITOR:—A few days since I was talking with a prominent Democrat, living in the State of Virginia, and in the course of conversation with him, I ventured to inquire what he thought of the chances of Mr. O'Ferrall, now running for Governor of that State. His answer was this, as I recall it:

"We intend to elect him; we can not afford to allow him to be defeated. To do so would be a blow at the integrity and the manhood of the Anglo-Saxon race."

I asked him about the great struggle now going on in regard to Mr. Cleveland and the question of free silver. "What constitutes a democrat to-day?" "Vote for the nominee and think what you please."

In all that goes to make a first-class, social gentleman, this man is rated in his community as standing sans prier, et sans reproche, and his test of a democrat is "vote for the nominee" and, if, for any cause, he fails to be elected, "throw out enough of the other man's votes to elect"—and while this, sometimes looks a little irregular, to say the least of it, we must protect the Anglo-Saxon race.

It struck me that the Anglo-Saxon who calls for protection acknowledges himself a very inferior creature—a rather emaciated specimen of that noble line of people. This talk about protecting this great race of ours is the merest cant and nonsense, indulged in for the sole purpose of arousing the passions of men and diverting attention from the true issue. No race of men on this earth ever has or ever will be able to compete with the Anglo-Saxon, and it is painfully surprising to see so-called good men, trying to mislead and blind the people. To my mind a great many of these men who are so solicitous about the future of our race care about as much about what they are talking about as they do about the man in the moon. The man who spends his time in trying to stir up race prejudice is not apt to be an angel. It is all in keeping with ballot box stuffing and other forms of fraud.

Now, I do not believe, for a moment, the great masses of any party favor fraud, but still, many connive at it. I heard a man say not a great while ago, that while he had never been a candidate for any office, he always voted, and at one election, not many years ago, he saw, if the fair thing was allowed his candidate would be beaten, and what do you think he did? He said he put in five votes for his man, and as he gave this information, he laughed at the stupidity of the poll holder, and boasted that he but did his duty. He did this, doubtless, to protect the race!

MR. EDITOR, what is fraud? Will you kindly enlighten the public on this now interesting subject?

Last year I had the honor to be a candidate for Congress. In addition to being the recipient of quite a number of epithets, I was accused of being a drunkard and an unbeliever, and to cap the whole, I was accused of buying somebody; while this "racket" was worked for all it was worth, the discovery was made, just before the election, that if something extraordinary was not done and that speedily, that I would be elected. I know of over two thousand votes cast for me, being thrown out because of some alleged irregularity. These votes were confined to three counties and the information was given me by kind friends. I did not seek it. I have hardly spoken of it since the election. I knew it would do no good. The man, or set of men, who do wrong will always justify themselves. In the county of Beaufort I noticed in the official vote for Congress, that 980 votes cast for me were thrown out. These votes were cast for me by men who never saw me. They were clearly the wish of the voters. I have been told by good authority that the votes referred to were condemned and thrown out because "53" was not printed before the word congress. I ventured sometime since to ask an old machine democrat what he thought of throwing out my votes for the reason alleged above. "Well," he said, "we did not know if you got in, but that you would hold over and we wished to guard against such a possibility." And this answer was about as sensible as any of them can give.

With your kind permission, I propose at some day in the future to analyze and examine the vote for Congress in this district. I have nothing to say against the incumbent. He makes us a good representative so far as I know. I am not after him, but I despise the methods employed by the machine to encompass my defeat. I suppose the end justified the means; we must protect the Anglo-Saxon race, you know!

My offense for the treatment I received was I was not going to vote for Cleveland. I did not vote for him and I believe to-day his election is the greatest calamity that has befallen this country in years.

Before the election you could hear nothing but "McKinley and the Force bill." Sharp shot orators everywhere in North Carolina made many and extravagant promises for their chief. How well he is carrying out the program marked out for him by his friends I leave for them to say.

I wish to register here, and now, that I am now, and will be while life lasts, utterly opposed to the methods employed by the dominant party at the last election, and I appeal to the great public of North Carolina to lay aside, for the time, all discussion of other subjects and stand together for "a free vote and a fair count."

Are honest elections possible in North Carolina?

Yours for the right,
REDDIE P. GATLING.

NO WONDER THE JUDGE IS MAD.

[Correspondent The Caucasian.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 16th, 1893.
MR. EDITOR: It seems that a Raleigh correspondent of The Union Republican recently charged Judge Avery of the Supreme court, with having aided Simmons in preparing the notorious secret circular which he sent out during the last campaign, with a view to disfranchising voters who would not vote the Democratic ticket. I am informed when this information came to Judge Avery he was very angry, and anxious to find out the author of the charge. By some means he got an idea that Ex-Congressman Nichols wrote the article; whereupon he sent a messenger to Mr. Nichols to know if it was true. We are also informed that Mr. Nichols refused to answer, because there was a threat contained in the message. It is said that Judge Avery and his sons went with chains to hunt up the man who had charged him with being a party to such a grave offence. For some reason they did not attack Mr. Nichols when they found him. Mr. Nichols was arrested for carrying concealed weapons, and the Judge left town. Your correspondent has heard some harsh criticism on the Judge for his actions, but the provocation was so great that it seems to us that there was some excuse for it. Any honorable man who is charged with being a party to the unfair and dishonest scheme of Simmons, would naturally lose his head, unless he was as cool as an iceberg. We are informed later that the Judge and Mr. Nichols have made friends upon the statement of Mr. Nichols, that he knew nothing about the matter.

Very truly,
VINDEX.

P. S. Since writing the above, I learn that Judge Avery was a member of the court who wrote the opinion in the case of Harris against Scarborough. This would seem to lend some color to the charge that the Judge is in favor of using extraordinary methods of conducting elections.

CAPT. JAMES H. ROBERTSON DEAD.

After a lingering illness of several months, Mr. Robertson quietly passed away early last Sunday morning at his residence on Devane street. The remains were interred in the Clinton cemetery Sunday afternoon, between four and five o'clock. Mr. Warren Johnson read some appropriate passages of Scripture and led in prayer.

Mr. Robertson has been a prominent and useful citizen, having served three terms as sheriff of Sampson county. His war record justly entitled him to the warm place he occupied in the hearts of his countrymen. He was a captain in the Confederate army, and served his country as such with distinction. A service received while doing gallant service in that terrible struggle which forms such a dark page in America's history, disabled him, and caused him to be a life-long sufferer. In his death his family suffered the loss of a kind husband and affectionate father, the town and community a useful citizen. THE CAUCASIAN extends sympathy to the bereaved and sorrowing family and relatives.—Clinton Caucasian.

THE BUELL CIRCULAR.

There is some dispute in regard to the genuineness of the following, known as the "Buell circular" to bankers. It was a private circular sent only to bankers, and it is very difficult to establish at this late date by documentary evidence the exact date of its issue by an original copy.

NATIONAL BANKERS' CIRCULAR.

Dear Sir:—It is advisable to do all in your power to sustain such daily and weekly newspapers, especially the agricultural and religious press, as will oppose the issuing of greenback paper money, and that you withhold patronage or favors from all applicants who are not willing to oppose the government issue of money. Let the government issue the coin and the banks issue the paper money of the country, for then we can better protect each other. To repeal the law creating national banks, or to restore to circulation the government issue of money, will, therefore, seriously affect our individual profits as bankers and lenders. See your member of congress at once, and engage him to support our interest, that we may control legislation.

(Signed by the secretary.)
JAN. BUELL,
No. 247 Broadway, (Room 4),
New York

But the following sent to the papers named are from the same source, and are intended to bring about the same order of things through other means. These letters prove there was such a man, that he occupied such a position and that he was a scoundrel. With the positive evidence of the one may we not believe the other was sent out:

PRIVATE CIRCULAR TO BANKERS—

"PRIVATE AND SUGGESTIVE."

"It is advisable to do all in your power to sustain such daily and weekly prominent newspapers, especially the religious and agricultural press, as will oppose the issuing of greenback paper money, and that you also withhold patronage and favors from all applicants who are not willing to oppose the greenback or government issue of paper money."

CHICAGO INTER-OCEAN.

If you will notice the date of the following, you will see this attempt to corrupt the Inter-Ocean was made before the majority of its stock had fallen into the hands of the Plutocrats.

The following is taken from the Chicago Inter-Ocean:
"The Inter-Ocean acknowledges the receipt of the following singular document, the name of your first issue immediately following the receipt of this, and send marked copy and bill to yours truly."

THE AMERICAN BANKERS' ASS'N.,
247 Broadway, Room 4,
New York, October 9, 1877.

STRICTLY PRIVATE.

Dear Sir:—Please insert the enclosed printed slip as a leaded matter on the editorial page of your issue immediately following the receipt of this, and send marked copy and bill to yours truly.

JAMES BUELL, Secretary,
247 Broadway, Room 4.

Comments on slip not to exceed half a column will be paid for, if mailed at the same time.

THE INTER-OCEAN SAYS:

"The following is the document which we are asked to insert as leaded matter on the editorial page, in other words, as a statement made by the Inter-Ocean."

"The Greenback party has offered through its managers to sell out to the Democrats, and hereafter to work in Democratic harness, if a place for a few of their leaders can be provided. This merely shows how much dependence there is to be placed on the leaders of lunatics who clamor for money based on nothing."

The Inter-Ocean remarks:
"We insert this, but we shall send no bill for it. We shall send no bill, because in the first place we do not follow directions about leading it; secondly, because we are compelled to say that we do not believe a word of the statement to be true. The attempt to thus maliciously destroy the Greenback party without submitting a word of proof is a piece of shameless and brazen effrontery which ought to be beneath any body of commercial gentlemen, and especially the American Bankers' Association."

NEW YORK SUN.

On the same day that the above was sent to the Chicago Inter-Ocean, a Republican paper, the following was sent to the New York Sun, a Democratic paper.

The Sun says:
The following was received yesterday at the office of the Sun:

THE AMERICAN BANKERS' ASS'N.,
247 Broadway,
New York, October 9, 1877.

STRICTLY PRIVATE.

Please insert the enclosed slip as editorial and send marked copy of paper with bill to

JAMES BUELL, Secretary,
247 Broadway, Room 4.

"The prospect is that in six months there will not be a Greenback leader in the land. Overtures have been made by the leaders of the Greenback movement to President Hayes to abandon the Greenback as a lost cause, providing he will give good official positions to about twenty of the most blatant of the clamorous for more money that is based on nothing!"

GRANVILLE, N. C.

Enclosed you will find 97 cents to extend subscription of Mr. Andy Crant. You'll excuse me for sending postal note. I can't register a dozen little pieces of silver, and besides, I must keep a little silver to stop blood in the neighborhood when people cut themselves and to keep off wite-h's. The lack of money keeps many from subscribing. Tobacco opens up at ruinous prices. Our farmers are growing desperate and are coming to the People's party—one here and there are holding out.

WATCH FOR THE BLUE CROSS.

A blue cross opposite your name means that your subscription will expire before the end of the month; and if you desire the paper go to your renewer you must send in your renewal by that time. The low price of the paper makes it just out of the question to send it longer than it is paid for. Be governed accordingly.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. S. Leonard—Pianos and Organs. Progressive Farmer—Try it eight weeks for 10 cents.

We wish to request our readers when writing to any of the above companies to say that you saw the advertisement in THE CAUCASIAN.

In another column will be found a notice of the Progressive Farmer, of Illinois. It is live and progressive and is doing for the North what it is educating the people for South. Try it for 8 weeks for 10 cents.

The third Demorest Silver Medal Contest will be held at St. John's church on Friday night, (Goldsboro, N. C.). All are urged to attend. Admission free 10 cents. Exercises to commence at 7.30. After the exercises the Ladies Aid Society will give an oyster and ice cream supper at the Parsonage.

Those of our readers who contemplate purchasing a piano or organ should not do so until they have seen or written to Mr. Leonard of Wilmington, N. C. See his ad in another column. Mr. Leonard has been in the business for years and his experience will be worth something to you in making selections. He is too honest to advise you wrong.

Our Editor is absent this week. He is in the Virginia campaign. We notice that Senator Daniels and Ex-Gov. Lee were billed to speak again at Houston on the 24th. That's the way to do it, trot out your best. We have not heard from them but we are not at all anxious or at least so far as our man is concerned. He is able to take care of the cause he represents, again, as Col. Baker used to say, any of the "big red ones they bring out against him."

Lenoir county has, like a man, sent Mr. Butler to help out her sister State Virginia. Now let other counties do as well. Dr. Cy Thompson and Col. Harry Skinner are ready to cross swords with any of the Virginia gold-bugs, but you must expect them to bear their own expenses. Raise a sum sufficient to bear their expenses and call for them and they will respond, and either or both will do to trust with our banner. There are but a few more days to work—be up and at them.

The National Watchman has been changed to 16 pages and the subscription price raised to $1.00 per year. We club it at 75 cents. It gives away each week a 25 pound box of chewing tobacco to the one sending the largest club. H. T. Grenell of Gilton Oregon, got the first box. He only sent a club of two, so you see if some other fellow had got three subscribers he would not be chewing the weed. Fire right in next week and see what you can do. Or come and let us order it for you and save 25 cents and at the same time give us a chance to get the premium, we chew.

Died, at the home of her parents, in Wayne county, Oct. 8th, 1893, the young and devoted wife of Mr. Alonzo Carr, of Green county. Mrs. Carr suffered for four weeks, but through all her suffering she never murmured, but bore it with christian patience and fortitude. She was a consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, and died in the full faith of a glorious resurrection. All that we can do to console the grief stricken hearts of her loved ones is to recommend to them that Grace which is sufficient to sustain them in their deepest afflictions.

J. W. H. A difficulty between Mr. N. J. Smith and James McKinnies, both of Pikeville township, a few days ago, resulted in Mr. Smith striking Mr. McKinnies on the head with a hatchet, fracturing his skull. We are pained to hear of this. Mr. Smith is one of the best men of our county, and while we have not learned the particulars of this unfortunate affair, we are satisfied that there was great provocation or Mr. Smith would never have struck his fellowman with a deadly weapon. Mr. McKinnies while a hard working and clever man when sober, has a habit of getting on sprees, and no doubt was on one when this affair occurred.

Congressman Bryan (like thousands of Democrats in North Carolina) realizes that they have not reached the forks of the road. They must give up the Democratic party, or they believe in.

Van Allen who paid $50,000 for an appointment under Cleveland indulged in the "I am a Democrat" declaration. But he winked his weather eye when he said it.

The first number of the "Solid South" published at Fayetteville N. C., by John McDuffie is on our table, we welcome it among our exchanges, and wish it God's speed in its efforts, for and in behalf of the cause of the people it has espoused.

Col. Harry Skinner will address the people of Hyde, at Swann Quarter, (at the recess of court) on Monday, Nov. 13th, on the objects of the Alliance as related to the issues of the day. The public generally are invited to hear him.

Mr. F. B. Edmundson, of our city, was happily united in wedlock, at 10 o'clock a. m. the 24th inst., the bride being Miss Mal Crawford, of Raleigh. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. R. Crawford. The brother of the groom, Rev. J. T. Edmundson, performed the ceremony that made them "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one"—or words to that effect. May they enjoy a long and pleasant life together.

Our neighbor, Mr. E. L. Edmundson, informs that he has been ordered by a friend of ours—he would not tell who it was—to place at our command two pairs of shoes, and that they are there for us to select at our pleasure. As we only wear one at a time and generally break the left to the right foot, you see it amounts to FOUR PAIRS FOR US, consequently we are in for the winter. We like all ways to know who to thank for favors but as we are not to know, we will say he is a generous hearted soul and he has our thanks whether we know him or not.

Almost every man has enemies—even Christ the Saviour of man while in the flesh had His—and some men are to be loved and admired for the enemies they have made. Senator Irbly of South Carolina has his; as is evidenced by a postal card we have received from some one writing us from Alendale, S. C. The writer, a gold-bug no doubt, writes us applying certain epithets to the Senator, and has the cheek, although he has not the manliness to sign his name to the card, to ask us to publish it. We are not personally acquainted with Senator Irbly—we admire him however for the stand he has taken for the cause of the people on the silver question, and we believe that the people of his own State as well as ours and other States are with him, and the fact that some one who has not the manliness to sign his name to the card, to ask us to publish it. We are not personally acquainted with Senator Irbly—we admire him however for the stand he has taken for the cause of the people on the silver question, and we believe that the people of his own State as well as ours and other States are with him, and the fact that some one who has not the manliness to sign his name to the card, to ask us to publish it.

When there was a surplus in the United States Treasury, the gold-bugs suggested to the President and Congressmen, that it was not necessary to lower taxes, but that the government ought to buy up bonds that were not due at a premium, and it was done. Of course the goldbugs held the bonds, they named the amount of the premium and got the money. The people continued to pay higher taxes and foot the bills. Now there is a deficit in the Treasury, and the goldbugs again suggest, that of course it will not do to lower taxes now, but that the government should issue more interest bearing bonds, so that they can invest their money again, and Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic administration is trying to serve them. The people have now made up their minds that they will now do some suggesting themselves. But they must first elect a President and Congressmen who will listen to their suggestions, rather than the gold-bugs, this will be when the People's party is in power.

A GOOD REPORT FROM BRO. LONG.

Bro. J. J. Long who has just visited the county Alliances of Green, Wayne, Wilson, Nash, Franklin, Warren and Johnston counties reports that the Alliance in these counties are moving along finely and gaining in membership. He spoke at each county Alliance and reports good attendance. At every place where we have heard from the brethren, they are much pleased with the addresses made by Bro. Long.

We were with Bro. Long at the Johnston county Alliance and was delighted at the progress the reform movement is making in that county. The vote on the confirmation of Van Allen, the millionaire dude with foreign proclivities, as Minister to Rome, was taken in the Senate Friday. The nomination was confirmed by a vote of 39 yeas to 22 nays. Ransom voted for the dude who bought his place with $50,000, and Vance voted against him. Who was it that said "Public office is a public trust?"

ALLIANCE SPEAKING.

UNCONDITIONAL REPEAL CERTAIN.

A telegram from Washington informs us that the Southern Democrats refuse to filibuster and that unconditional repeal is certain. Well we do not know that we care. We have favored opposition to unconditional repeal and would fight it to the last if a member of congress, but there seems to be a determination on the part of the administration to force it upon us. So let it come and let the responsibility rest where it belongs. We refer them to the 92nd Psalm; which we think is applicable in this case. It reads as follows: "When the wicked spring as the grass, and the workers of iniquity do flourish, it is that they shall be destroyed forever." Some will say there is political selfishness in this. We try to divest ourselves of selfishness; we are but human however. W. G. H.

A DEMOCRAT WITH A KNIFE?

A knife, with a long, keen blade, whetted for the purpose, is waiting for Mr. Woodward, the Democratic congressman from the second (Republican) district. One could smell the sulphur and brimstone on Judge Martin's breath when he spoke of the way things were going in Woodward's district. The Judge is an influential Bertie Democrat, and, to put it mildly, he does not approve of Woodward's methods in the distribution of the spoils. Naturally he protests against what he characterizes as an alliance between Woodward and Frank Winston, a Republican, according to the eminent Bertie jurist a deal is on, and Winston is enjoying perquisites that rightfully belong to Democrats. The common, plain people don't understand these combinations, but they will have an inkling of its meaning unless something in the way of paralysis happens to Judge Martin. Some people here wonder whether this Dr. Jekell and Hyde business between Woodward and Winston has any connection with anything else. Judge Martin says that "certain district patronage has been turned out to Winston, and that the aforesaid Winston is placing it where it will do the most good." What this means is only surmise. The secret, or the "motif of the play" will develop hereafter. The MORALE it points is the every day trading between certain Republicans and certain Democrats who thoroughly understand each other. The scheme has been uncovered. Woodward is a meek-looking man. Nobody would ever suppose that he had the nerve to "scuttle a ship" or the gall to accept a certificate of election, knowing that a great fraud was thereby perpetrated. Any way, Martin will knife him for a renomination, and should that fail he expects to defeat his re-election. Martin is said to be a "crack shot."

Now, I do not believe, for a moment, the great masses of any party favor fraud, but still, many combine to do it. I heard a man say not a great while ago, that while he had never been a candidate for any office, he always voted, and at one election, not many years ago, he saw, if the fair thing was allowed his candidate would be beaten, and what do you think he did? He said he put in five votes for his man, and as he gave this information, he laughed at the stupidity of the poll holder, and boasted that he but did his duty. He did this, doubtless, to protect the race!

Mr. Editor, what is fraud? Will you kindly enlighten the public on this now interesting subject?

Last year I had the honor to be a candidate for Congress. In addition to being the recipient of quite a number of epithets, I was accused of being a drunkard and an unbeliever, and to cap the whole, I was accused of buying somebody; while this "racket" was worked for all it was worth, the discovery was made, just before the election, that if something extraordinary was not done and that speedily, that I would be elected. I knew of over two thousand votes cast for me, being thrown out because of some alleged irregularity. These votes were confined to three counties and the information was given me by kind friends. I did not seek it. I have hardly spoken of it since the election. I knew it would do no good. The man, or set of men, who do wrong will always justify themselves. In the county of Beaufort I noticed in the official vote for Congress, that 980 votes cast for me were thrown out. These votes were cast for me by men who never saw me. They were clearly the wish of the voters. I have been by good authority that the votes referred to and condemned and thrown out because "53" was not printed before the word congress. I ventured sometime since to ask an old machine democrat what he thought of throwing out my votes for the reason alleged above. "Well," he said, "we did not know if you got in, but that you would hold over and we wished to guard against such a possibility." And this answer was about as sensible as any of them can give.

With your kind permission, I propose at some day in the future to analyze and examine the vote for Congress in this district. I have nothing to say against the incumbent. He makes us a good representative so far as I know. I am not after him, but I despise the methods employed by the machine to compass my defeat. I suppose the end justified the means; we must protect the Anglo-Saxon race, you know!

My offense for the treatment I received was I was not going to vote for Cleveland. I did not vote for him and I believe to-day his election is the greatest calamity that has befallen this country in years.

Before the election you could hear nothing but "McKinley and the

FROM THE PEOPLE.

GATES CO., N. C., Oct. 14, 1893. MR. EDITOR:—A few days since I was talking with a prominent Democrat, living in the State of Virginia, and in the course of conversation with him, I ventured to inquire what he thought of the chances of Mr. O'Reilly, now running for Governor of that State. His answer was this, as I recall it:

"We intend to elect him; we can not afford to allow him to be defeated. To do so would be a blow at the integrity and the manhood of the Anglo-Saxon race."

I asked him about the great struggle now going on in regard to Mr. Cleveland and the question of free silver. "What constitutes a democrat to-day?" "Vote for the nominee and think what you please."

In all that goes to make a first-class, social gentleman, this man is rated in his community as standing sans prier, et sans reproche, and his test of a democrat is "vote for the nominee" and, if, for any course, he fails to be elected, "throw out enough of the other man's votes to elect"—and while this, sometimes looks a little irregular, to say the least of it, we must protect the Anglo-Saxon race.

It struck me that the Anglo-Saxon who calls for protection acknowledges himself a very inferior creature—a rather emaculated specimen of that noble line of people. This talk about protecting this great race of ours is the merest cant and nonsense, indulged in for the sole purpose of arousing the passions of men and diverting attention from the true issue. No race of men on this earth ever has or ever will be able to compete with the Anglo-Saxon, and it is painfully surprising to see so-called good men, trying to mislead and blind the people. To my mind a great many of these men who are so solicitous about the future of our race care about as much about what they are talking about as they do about the man in the moon. The man who spends his time in trying to stir up race prejudice is not apt to be an angel. It is all in keeping with ballot box stuffing and other forms of fraud.

Now, I do not believe, for a moment, the great masses of any party favor fraud, but still, many combine to do it. I heard a man say not a great while ago, that while he had never been a candidate for any office, he always voted, and at one election, not many years ago, he saw, if the fair thing was allowed his candidate would be beaten, and what do you think he did? Before the election you could hear nothing but "McKinley and the Force bill." Sharp shot orators everywhere in North Carolina made many and extravagant promises for their chief. How well he is carrying out the program marked out for him by his friends I leave for them to say.

I wish to register here, and now, that I am now, and will be while life lasts, utterly opposed to the methods employed by the dominant party at the last election, and I appeal to the great public of North Carolina to lay aside, for the time, all discussion of other subjects and stand together for "a free vote and a fair count."

Are honest elections possible in North Carolina?

Yours for the right, REDDIE P. GATLING.

NO WONDER THE JUDGE IS MAD.

(Correspondent The Caucasian.)

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 16th, 1893. MR. EDITOR: It seems that a Raleigh correspondent of The Union Republican recently charged Judge Avery of the Supreme court, with having aided Simmons in preparing the notorious secret circular which he sent out during the last campaign, with a view to disfranchising voters who would not vote the Democratic ticket. I am informed when this information came to Judge Avery he was very angry, and anxious to find out the author of the charge. By some means he got an idea that Ex-Congressman Nichols wrote the article; whereupon he sent a messenger to Mr. Nichols to know if it was true. We are also informed that Mr. Nichols refused to answer, because there was a threat contained in the message. It is said that Judge Avery and his sons went with canes to hunt up the man who had charged him with being a party to such a grave offence. For some reason they did not attack Mr. Nichols when they found him. Mr. Nichols was arrested for carrying concealed weapons, and the Judge left town. Your correspondent has heard some harsh criticism on the Judge for his actions, but the provocation was so great that it seems to us that there was some excuse for it. Any honorable man who is charged with being a party to the unfair and dishonest scheme of Simmons, would naturally lose his head, unless he were as cool as an iceberg. We are informed later that the Judge and Mr. Nichols have made friends upon the statement of Mr. Nichols, that he knew nothing about the matter.

Very truly, VINCE.

P. S. Since writing the above, I learn that Judge Avery was a member of the court who wrote the opinion in the case of Harris against Scarborough. This would seem to lend some color to the charge that the Judge is in favor of using extraordinary methods of conducting elections.

CAPT. JAMES H. ROBERSON DEAD.

After a lingering illness of several months, Mr. Roberson quietly passed away early last Sunday morning at his residence on Devane street. The remains were interred in the Clinton cemetery Sunday afternoon, between four and five o'clock. Mr. Warren Johnson read some appropriate passages of Scripture and led in prayer.

Mr. Roberson has been a prominent and useful citizen, having served three terms as sheriff of Sampson county. His war record justly entitled him to the warm place he occupied in the hearts of his countrymen. He was a captain in the Confederate army, and served his country as such with distinction. A wound received while doing gallant service in that terrible struggle which forms such a dark page in America's history, disabled him, and caused him to be a life-long sufferer. In his death his family suffered the loss of a kind husband and affectionate father, the own and community a useful citizen. THE CAUCASIAN extends sympathy to the bereaved and a sorrowing family and relatives.—Clinton Caucasian.

THE BUELL CIRCULAR.

There is some dispute in regard to the genuineness of the following, known as the "Buell circular" to bankers. It was a private circular sent only to bankers, and it is very difficult to establish at this late date by documentary evidence the exact date of its issue by an original copy:

NATIONAL BANKERS' CIRCULAR.

Dear Sir:—It is advisable to do all in your power to sustain such daily and weekly newspapers, especially the agricultural and religious press, as will oppose the issuing of greenback paper money, and that you withhold patronage or favors from all applicants who are not willing to oppose the government issue of money. Let the government issue the coin and the banks issue the paper money of the country, for then we can better protect each other. To repeal the law creating national banks, or to restore to circulation the government issue of money, will, therefore, seriously affect our individual profit as bankers and lenders. See your member of congress at once, and engage him to support our interest, that we may control legislation. (Signed by the secretary.)

J. A. S. BUELL.

No. 247 Broadway, Room 4, New York.

But the following sent to the papers named are from the same source, and are intended to bring about the same order of things through other means. These letters prove there was such a man, that he occupied such a position and that he was a scoundrel. With the positive evidence of the one may we not believe the other was sent out:

PRIVATE CIRCULAR TO BANKERS—

"PRIVATE AND SUGGESTIVE."

"It is advisable to do all in your power to sustain such daily and weekly prominent newspapers, especially the religious and agricultural press, as will oppose the issuing of greenback paper money, and that you withhold patronage and favors from all applicants who are not willing to oppose the greenback or government issue of paper money."

JAMES BUELL.

CHICAGO INTER-OCEAN.

If you will notice the date of the following, you will see this attempt to corrupt the Inter-Ocean was made before the majority of its stock had fallen into the hands of the Plutocrats.

The following is taken from the Chicago Inter-Ocean: "The Inter-Ocean acknowledges the receipt of the following singular document which came to this office from New York Saturday morning: THE AMERICAN BANKERS' ASS'N., 247 Broadway, Room 4, New York, October 9, 1877."

STRICTLY PRIVATE.

Dear Sir:—Please insert the enclosed printed slip as leaded matter on the editorial page of your first issue immediately following the receipt of this, and send marked copy and bill to your printer.

JAMES BUELL, Secretary, 247 Broadway, Room 4.

Comments on slip not to exceed half a column will be paid for, if billed at the same time. J. B.

The Inter-Ocean says: "The following is the document which we are asked to insert as leaded matter on the editorial page, in other words, as a statement made by the Inter-Ocean."

"The Greenback party has offered through its managers to sell out to the Democrats, and hereafter to work in Democratic harness if a place for a few of their leaders can be provided. This merely shows how much dependence there is to be placed on the leaders of lunatics who clamor for money based on nothing."

THE INTER-OCEAN REMARKS:

"We insert this, but we shall send no bill for it. We shall send it, because in the first place we do not follow directions about leading it; secondly, because we are compelled to say that we do not believe a word of the statement to be true. The attempt to thus maliciously destroy the Greenback party without submitting a word of proof is a piece of shameless and brazen effrontery which ought to be beneath any body of commercial gentlemen, and especially the American Bankers' Association."

NEW YORK SUN.

On the same day that the above was sent to the Chicago Inter-Ocean, a Republican paper, the following was sent to the New York Sun, a Democratic paper.

The Sun says: The following was received yesterday at the office of the Sun:

THE AMERICAN BANKERS' ASS'N., 247 Broadway, New York, October 9, 1877.

STRICTLY PRIVATE.

Please insert the enclosed slip as editorial and send marked copy of paper with bill to your printer.

JAMES BUELL, Secretary, 247 Broadway, Room 4.

"The prospect is that in six months there will not be a greenback leader in the land. Overtures have been made by the leaders of the Greenback movement to President Hayes to abandon the Greenback as a lost cause, promising to give good official positions to about twenty of the most blatant of the clamorous for more money that is based on nothing!"

GRANVILLE, N. C.

Enclosed you will find 97 cents to extend subscription of Mr. Andy Crant. You'll excuse me for sending postal note. I can't register a dozen little pieces of silver, and besides, I must keep a little silver to stop blood in the neighborhood when people cut themselves and to keep off witch's. The lack of money keeps many from subscribing. Tobacco opens up at ruinous prices. Our farmers are growing desperate and are coming to the People's party—one here and there are holding out.
